

Veterans For Peace Launches Hampton Roads Chapter

Over 3 days, the National Director of Veterans For Peace, Mike Ferner, will introduce the newest Veterans For Peace chapter to the Hampton Roads region. He will speak in Virginia Beach, Newport News and Norfolk at the inaugural events of Veterans For Peace #757.

Veterans For Peace (VFP) is a US-based organization with over 100 chapters made up of military veterans and their allies whose experiences and efforts are focused on building a culture of peace.

VFP chapters across the globe work to inform the public on the causes and costs of war, prevent and end armed conflict, defend veteran's rights, resist racism and heal the wounds of war.

Mike Ferner is a Vietnam-era veteran, former city councilman in Toledo, Ohio, union organizer, author and peace activist. Join him and local veterans to learn more about VFP at these upcoming 90-minute events:

- Tuesday, April 30, 7 pm, at Virginia Beach Friends Meeting
1537 Laskin Rd., Virginia Beach, 23451
- Wednesday, May 1, 6 pm, at Newport News Main St. Library
110 Main St., Newport News, 23601
- Thursday, May 2, 7 pm, at the Basilica of St. Mary Pastoral Center
1000 E. City Hall Ave., Norfolk, 23504

For more information contact Clayton Tye or Dan O'Loughlin at vfp757@gmail.com.

To learn more about VFP go to veteransforpeace.org